SENATOR QUAYLE ADVOCATES A STRONGER NATIONAL DEFENSE AND A BALANCED BUDGET.

Senator Dan Quayle

A native of Huntington, Indiana, Senator Dan Quayle was born February 4, 1947, He was graduated from Huntington High School, DEPaul University and the Indiana University School of Law at Indianapolis.

Trained as a lawyer and newspaperman, Quayle began his public service career as Chief Invistigator for the Consumer Protection Division of Indiana Attorney General's Office in 1969.

After stints as administrative assistant to Governor Edgar Whitcomb and as director of the Inheritance Tax Division of the Indiana Department of Revenue, he returned home to practice law and serve as associate publisher of his family's newspaper, The Huntington Herald-Press.

In 1976 he was elected to the first of two terms in the U.S. House of Representatives and then in November of 1980 he was elected to the U.S. Senate.

Senator Quayle serves on the Armed Services Committee, and its Subcommittees on Manpower and Personnel, Seapower and Force Projection, and the Subcommittee on Strategic and Theater Nuclear Forces.

He has introduced a tax simplification plan that would make it possible for individuals to file their annual income tax return on a postcard.

NAACP TO TARGET STUDIOS, NETWORKS OF MOVIE INDUSTRY.

--NAACP Executive Director Benjamin L. Hooks announced that the NAACP will target a specific studio for direct action to advance the civil rights organization's fair share campaign throughout the movie industry.

He told reporters at a news conference in Los Angeles that the decision to adopt this strategy was reached after the NAACP's movie task force had conducted some 36 discussions with industry representatives and leaders with varying but inconclusive results.

Hooks statement on the fair share program involving movie studios was supported by a resolution which was adopted by the recent NAACP convention in Boston. That resolution directed that "the National Executive Director be directed to develop and implement with all deliberate speed a selective patronage campaign for NAACP units aimed at those motion pictures which have excluded blacks from reasonable participation in front of and behind the camera."

The Newspaper reported that CBS had terminated its contract with the London-based Television Audience Program Evaluation LTD. (TAPE) because of the nature of the company's research.

By using a formula called "factor analysis," TAPE penalized movie ideas whose central characters are blacks, Jews, Italians, Mexicans and other ethnic groups, the newspaper reported.

CBS denied that it had used TAPE's information discriminatorily. Though ABC and NBC networks did not use the "factor analysis," they utilized another selection method called "concept testing." The Los Angeles Times reported that "CBS will not drop concept testing."

RACIAL STUDY.

THE US COMMISSION on Civil Rights issued last week the first of a two-part study on racial and ethnicdiscrimination against older Americans in federally assisted programs.

Titled "Minority Elderly Services: New Program, Old problems," the study examines minority elderly participation in programs carried out by the administration on aging.

Under these programs, funds are provided to state and area agencies to provide nutrition social services such as transportation, health and housing for senior citizens.

The commissions study was undertaken following the issuance in 1977 of an age-discrimination study by the commission. The study showed that older members of minority groups were often victims of age, as well as racial or ethnic discrimination, The new report was based on six case studies.

PRESIDENT REAGAN ANNOUNCES PROPOSAL ALLOWING CHILDREN TO PRAY IN SCHOOL.

At the National Day of Prayer ceremony in the Rose Garden, President Reagan announces his administrations proposal to submit to Congress a constitutional amendment "allowing" children to pray in school.

"Nothing in this Constitution shall be construed to prohibit individual or group prayer in public schools or other public institutions. No person shall be required by the U.S. or by any state to participate in prayer."

President Reagan.

THE POOR'S FOOD STAMPS TO BE CUT AGAIN.

- House and Senate negotiators reached formal agreement today on $7 billion in spending cuts in farm programs and food stamps through 1985, moving one step closer to completion of a GOP-inspired plan to reduce the deficit.

Despite the progress, negotiators remained deadlocked over proposals to trim $4 billion from federal pension costs through 1985. Also unresolved were proposed savings from veterans' programs totalling about $500 million.

The largest farm change calls for a reduction of $4.5 billion from the government's dairy price support programs. Food stamps would be cut $1.9 billion over three years, and crop programs would be overhauled substantially at a savings estimated at about $361 million.

Administration officials dispute the estimated savings, and say that overall, the changes approved would save only $2 billion to $2.5 billion through 1985, not the $7 billion claimed

NATIONAL STUDENT GROUP BACKS BOYCOTT TO DESEGREGATE HARVARD LAW FACULTY.

The National Black American Law Students Association (BALSA) affirms its support of the Harvard Black Law Students Association and the Harvard Law School Third World Coalition in their struggle to increase the number of minority professors in full-time, tenure-track faculty positions at the Harvard Law School. BALSA is especially concerned that recent press reports and editorials in national and local media have presented a distorted image of this significant, serious struggle, mis-representing Harvard's Black, Hispanic, Native American and Asian-American students as motivated by anti-white and so-called reverse racist bias.

The facts of the controversy show that harvard Law School itself has a long history of institutional racism, particularly in terms of hiring minority faculty and staff. On the entire faculty of Harvard Law School, there is only one full-time, tenured minority faculty member: Professor C. Clyde Ferguson, an Afro-american.

The glaring evidence of racial exclusion on the Harvard Law School faculty is further underscored by the history of student efforts to desegregate that faculty. For over a decade, Black and White students have attempted various tactics of persuasion and protest to emphasize the desirability of rapidly increasing the number of minority faculty. These efforts have been met with resistance, placatory rhetoric and paternalism--but with no significant addition of tenure-track minority professors.

You've probably heard about PNB's upcoming separation from its parent company, AT&T. A separation that was prompted by the U.S. Department of Justice.

What you've probably little idea of, is how, exactly, the changes will affect you.

First, we'd like to dispel any fears you may have. It has always been, and will always be, our primary concern to provide you with quality, affordable telephone service.

THE REASON FOR THE CHANGE.

In the developing days of the telephone industry, the overriding goal was to provide every home with a phone. Today, more than 96% of all households in America enjoy the use of a telephone.

With the advent of near-universal service, the philosophy of regulating the industry is changing.

Regulators and legislators are now looking to competition in the marketplace to decide what services will be provided at what price and by whom.

WHAT WILL IT COST ME?

Telephone service will continue to be a good value. In fact, we've recently added two new low-cost services called Basic and Budget Measured Service.

With these new services, you'll be charged for your phone service on the basis of how much phone service you use.

If you're a light phone user, you can expect to pay less than a heavy phone user. And visa-versa.

You will still, however, have the option of flat-rate premium service in your home, as well as the new measured services.

While these changes may mean increases to some, they will mean decreases to the majority.

IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS, LET'S TALK.

At PNB, we realize that the exchange of ideas and comments is invaluable. In fact, it's the very foundation of communication.

That's why we want you to know that we're ready to talk about the coming changes any time you are.

Just call 1 800 555-5000.

We'll answer any questions and provide you with more information.

In short, do everything possible to ensure that the transition to new ways of doing business is as smooth as possible for you.

HAS THY EVER LOVED

Has thy ever dreamed of the lonelyness, that thy heart once knew, dost thy ever lie awake nightly, trying to recapture the bygone years,

Has thy ever loved?

Has thy ever walked alone, with thy heart full of pain, yet, a smile upon thy face,

Has thy ever loved?

Has thy ever loved, truly loved, and was cast aside and walked upon, like falling leaves from which it came,

Has thy ever loved?

Has thy ever sat alone, in a moment of sadness, Looking beyond the crowd reaching out but could not touch, wanting to hold but could not feel, seeing but not wanting to believe.

Has thy ever loved, will thy ever love again?

BY ERNEST WHITE

FATHER I LOVE YOU (Confession)

Father I love you
Earnest I do:
Right now I'm hurting
For being untrue.

Father I'm burden
Heavy in my soul:
Forgive me my Lord,
Reduce this load.

Lord I'm sorry.
I love you so much:
When I don't do pleasing
I feel so crushed.

My love for you
Beats real from my heart:
When I do foolishness
It beats a funny throb.

My eyes are with tears
All this day long,
I'm feeling the pain
For doing you wrong.

Father I'm hurting
Deep inside,
Only your forgiveness
Can dry these eyes.

Father I love you
With all my heart;
You and only You
And no other God.

TO RICH TO BE POOR.

A native of Marion, South Carolina presently residing in Jamaica Plain, Massachusetts, is a touching story by an educated talented, blind, and black woman who sees far beyond the normal vision into the depth of reality than those with perfect sight usually see. Lawrence introduces experiences and circumstances that have and will continue to plague the lives of most human beings. Her exciting book encompasses twenty taking chapters.

The themes of blindness, patience, understanding, love, and faith dominate this literary work. The author's inner strength causes her to not fear the present or the future. She leaves the reader with some concrete suggestions on the wish of handicapped persons wanting to be accepted as ordinary people who are useful human beings. Lawrence speaks clearly on the issue of being viewed as different because of a handicap.

This book is now available at R&M Publishing Company, Inc., P.O. Box 1276, Holly Hill, S.C. 29059 for $9.95.

AL Davies Boy's Club

DIRECTOR OF AL DAVIES BOY'S CLUB.

RODNEY CLARK

Tackle football has been the spotlight of the Al Davies Boys' Club for the past week. The P.E. Department has expanded the program to three tackle football teams. Elmer Dixon, Roger Laskey and yours truly developed a $15,000 proposal that would field and suit up ninety kids for the tackle football program. The proposal was submitted to the Al Davies Board of Directors and approved with the idea that Mr. Dixon would seek out sponsors to offset the cost of the fall program. For the first time in years, Coaches Jimmy Ervin, Mike Clark, Malcolm Davis, Butch Batie and Eugene Mobley can concentrate on coaching football instead of hunting for equipment, uniforms and sponsors. Kids in grades 4-7 are urged to try out for one of the three teams.

Last week the gym was packed with slammers from all over the city to compete in the "Slam-Dunk" basketball league. The players were selected in the N.B.A. draft type format. Eight high school students and volunteers had the opportunity to pick a team in the draft. Players coaches Eddie Cobb and Carl Jackson. Bubba Dixon was drafted by Suns in the first round. Coach Lionel Swift of the spurs selected Tony Simmons to lead the team. Coach Gary Wells of the Rockets selected Celtics. Pat Williams selected Farrence Quins in the 1st round for the sonics. Frank Simmons was 1st round draft pick for Kenny Young's Lakers. League play begins at 11:00 am. on August 28th. All of the "Slam-Dunk" basketball league.

Girls grades 5-8 cheerleading is on the horizon. Coronda Huddleston and Carolyn Gore are getting prepared to build an excellent cheerleading squad. The cheerleaders will participate in a car wash at the Al Davies parking lot on August 28th from 11am. to 6:00 pm.

Wrestling sign-ups are picking up. Boys grades Kindergarten through 6th grade can sign up for wrestling at the club. The Summer Sports Banquet featuring the track and baseball teams will be held at the Boys' Club on September 11th at 2:00 pm. Don't miss the back to school dance on September 6th from 9:00 pm. to 1:00 am. Anyone 18 years of age and over that is interested in coaching flag football call 383-2731, ext. 27 for details.

Public Utility Board

New Board Member Begins Work:

Stephen J. Williams, a City of Seattle budget analyst, is the newest member of the Public Utility Board.

Rate Hearing Slated:

Department of Public Utilities customers will get their first opportunity on September 16 to comment on proposed increates in electric and water rates. A public hearing will be held September 16 in the Bicentennial Pavilion at 7 p.m. The format of the meeting is still to be determined.

State Actions Threaten Water Supply:

Plans by the State Game Department to plant steelhead in the Green River watershed will meet legal resistance from the Water Division. Superintendent John A. Roller said the utility will take action to stop the Game Department from planting steelhead above Howard Hanson Dam because the fish could introduce contaminants into the Green River water supply, which provides about 75 percent of Tacoma's water supply.

Energy "Buy Back" Starts in September:

Beginning next month, the Light Division will help qualified electric heat customers pay for the cost of installing various conservation measures. Under the Bonneville Power Administration residential "buy back" program, the Light Division will help pay for the cost of insulation, storm windows, weatherstripping and other conservation measures; the Light Division then will be reimbursed by BPA. To participate in the "buy back," customers must first have a home energy check.

For more information about the "buy back" program, call the Light Division Conservation Office, 593-8363. To scheduled a home energy check, call Equifax, 752-4696.

TURN YOUR RADIO ON:

"Utility Journal," a radio information program about the Department of Public Utilities, will premiere September 1, on KPLU-FM (88.5). Programs, produced by KPLU-FM, will air every Wednesday morning from 9-9:30.

FREE SEMINAR

A free seminar will be offered for non-custodial mothers at the downtown Tacoma Y.W.C.A. on Tuesday, September 14 at 6:30 pm. One in every ten divorced women will face coping with either by choice or as a result of court action.

Call the YWCA Women's Resource Center at 272-4181 for information.

BAHA'IS COMMUNITY OF TACOMA

TACOMA, Tacoma Baha'is received word from their National Center in Wilmette, Illinois, of still another execution of one of their co-religionists in Iran. According to their report, Abbas-Ali Sadiqipur was executed in Shiraz on July 15. His "crimes," reported in a leading Iranian Newspaper were based upon his connection with the religion and included the charge of his being an "active Baha'i."

"We have to continue speaking out against this persecution," said Joe Bushnell, local Baha'i spokesperson. "While the killing of people thousands of miles away might seem to remote to care about, if we remain silent, we can be sure that the Iranian government will continue with its plan to exterminate the Baha'is in Iran." he said.

In recent weeks, the U.S. Senate unanimously approved a resolution condemning the Iranian government for its "conscious effort to destroy the Baha'i community." The House of Representatives Foreign Affairs Committee is drafting a similar resolution, which is expected to pass easily in the House of Representatives.

Old Vets Share "the Good (and Tough) Old Days"

Old vets talk over old times at the Veterans Administration's Medical Center in Grand Junction, Colo., one of VA's 172 hospitals scattered around the country.

Jack Robertson, 79, confined to a wheelchair with a service-connected disability, chats with Henry Snyder, 91, who served overseas in both World War I and II.

But Snyder is not a fellow patient. He is one of the oldest volunteers in the whole VA system. He has logged more than 20,000 hours as a volunteer after a back injury in 1950 forced him into early retirement.

Snyder says he enjoys his work because it gives him the opportunity to help someone "who's worse off than me."

Edward F. Rose, director of VA's voluntary service effort in Washington, D.C., applauded Snyder and pointed out the special value of older men and women visiting older patients in the VA hospital system.

Teresa Cunningham, coordinator of volunteer service in Grand Junction, added, "Retired people are great as volunteers because they have valuable experience that they can share."
